

Assessment Meeting Questions

Is my parent making good progress on their recovery?

Are there complications that you haven't told me about?

If so, what were these caused by?

Are the therapies bringing about the desired results?

Is there something I can do to help?

How much longer will my parent require this therapy?

When can my parent return home or go to a care facility offering greater independence?

How much care will my parent require when therapy is completed?

Other _____